GBGB NOTICE FOR TRAINERS/VETERINARY SURGEONS

REDUCING THE RISK OF RACE DAY POSITIVE SAMPLES

GBGB is concerned with the increasing number of positive samples resulting from cross-contamination, the use of unlicensed veterinary products, an over use of supplements and the exposure of greyhounds to recreational drugs. The following advice should be closely followed to minimise the risk of contamination and exposing greyhounds to prohibited substances.

Guidelines for the Responsible Use of Medicines form part of the GBGB Rules of Racing (Rules 214 – 217) and trainers and staff should make themselves familiar with these rules. It is equally important that any veterinary surgeon prescribing medication to a greyhound is also familiar with Rule 216 (Treatment Book) and 217 (Administration of medicaments to Greyhounds).

‘Cross contamination’ risk can be reduced by recognising what might contain a prohibited substance and adopting a common-sense approach to controlling your dogs’ exposure to it. Smoking, eating or drinking near greyhounds can expose them to prohibited substances such as caffeine or theobromine. Human use of medication can cause a problem – trainers need to make their staff aware of how easily residues can be transferred and should take appropriate steps, such as wearing gloves when feeding or handling dogs if they are taking medication. Where dogs are medicated, extra care should be taken to prevent crossover of medicines between dogs kenneled together. Medicines must be stored and used in accordance with VMD (Veterinary Medicines Directorate) and GBGB Guidelines and their use must be recorded as per Rule 216; See:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/veterinary-medicines-guidance-notes-vmgns#using-medicines>

<http://www.gbgb.org.uk/uploads/pdf/Trainers%20Guide%20to%20Medication%20Control%20in%20Greyhounds%202014.pdf>

Use of recreational drugs by staff can cause similar problems. The GBGB take all findings of drugs of abuse very seriously. Trainers should take precautions to avoid any exposure and the government has provided useful advice: <http://www.hse.gov.uk/pubns/indg91.pdf>

Withdrawal Time – the GBGB Rules of Racing (Rule 217) imposes Strict Liability on Trainers to ensure that “all greyhounds are free of any substance or medication that could affect its performance or well-being the origin of which cannot be traced to normal and ordinary feeding” when they are presented to race or trial.

The exceptions to the Rule are approved medicinal products for the suppression of oestrus, vaccines and anti-parasitic drugs licensed for use in dogs by the VMD and substances included in the GBGB list of Permitted Treatments.

The Rules specify a minimum mandatory 7-day period between administration of medicine and a race or trial. Certain medicines may persist for longer such as some long acting or depot preparations and veterinary advice should be sought if these are prescribed for use. Specifically, meloxicam may persist for up to 25 days and should be avoided in dogs intended to race or trial within this timeframe.

Supplements can be an unintentional source of a prohibited substance. Care should be taken in their use – a significant proportion are not subject to quality control and the composition of their contents cannot always be relied upon. If multiple supplements are given, their ingredients can add up to exceed ‘threshold’ levels of substances normally found in the body, because these elevated levels then become prohibited. Human and equine supplements and herbal products are not recommended for use in dogs as their safety cannot be guaranteed.

Use of any unlicensed veterinary product is illegal, as is use of human medicines in animals, without a veterinary prescription, and not permitted under the Rules of Racing regardless of the claims made on the product. Internet availability of these products is putting trainers at risk because accurate advice is not usually available; your veterinary surgeon can advise on what is licensed for use in greyhounds in the UK and what is not. As with supplements, use of many unlicensed products increases risk of a ‘positive’ because they are very often not subject to quality control.

Only medicines licensed by the VMD for use in dogs may be used, and if any other medicines are used they must be used only under the prescription of a veterinary surgeon.

Day of race administration of, or exposure to, a prohibited substance is not permissible under the Rules of Racing and will increase the risk of a race day ‘positive’.

Elective testing is an option if you have a concern about a specific substance in a specific greyhound which is entered to run.

You can contact GBGB for advice on 020 7822 0900 or visit GBGB’s website (www.gbgb.org.uk) for further details.

The GBGB wishes to thank the Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board for their support and collaboration in providing International Harmonisation of Doping and Medication Advice.

ANNUAL VETERINARY KENNEL INSPECTIONS

All trainers are reminded to arrange for their Annual Veterinary Kennel Inspection to take place using the form that was enclosed with their 2017 licence cards, additional forms can be obtained from any Racing Office, from the GBGB office (0207 822 0927), or from the GBGB website.

The completed form must be returned to the GBGB office by the inspecting Veterinary Surgeon no later than Monday 3rd September 2018.

Trainers should contact their Veterinary Surgeon as soon as practical to make an appointment. A copy of the report will be kept on file at the GBGB with a duplicate being held by the Area Stipendiary Steward.

GBGB TRACK VET TRAINING DAY

- All licensed track vets are reminded of the GBGB Annual training event which will be held again at Nottingham Racecourse on Thursday 25th October 2017
- A full day of educational presentations with refreshments and lunch will be provided free of charge to Licensed Vets and will count for 6 hours of CPD.
- The agenda is being developed and full details will be posted ahead of the event.
- This event is always well attended and is an extremely useful and informative day providing relevant industry CPD in an informal and fun forum.

Please register by calling GBGB on 0207 822 0907 or by emailing megan.fellows@gbgb.org.uk
